We would like to invite you to the event Performing Arts Digital Collections: ECLAP. Opportunities, Advantages, Experiences.

Performing Arts Digital Collections: ECLAP. Opportunities, Advantages, Experiences is the second in the series of international events planned by ECLAP.

This event will take in Rome on 20 October 2011, thanks to Centro Teatro Ateneo of Sapienza, University of Rome, and with collaboration of, University of Florence (ECLAP Coordinator), Compagnia Teatrale Fo-Rame, Fondazione Rinascimento Digitale and Italian Ministry of Cultural Heritage and Activities.

Special guests will be Nobel Laureate Dario Fo & Franca Rame.

They will present their archive, which features unique videos, images and texts representing more than 50 years of activity of the Dario Fo and Franca Rame theatre company. The remarkable items of the archive are being made available to EUROPEANA, for the first time thanks to ECLAP.

"In our partnership with the ECLAP Digital Library, we intend to support ECLAP in its program of preservation, enhancement and social use of the artistic heritage through the provision of a unique access portal to the performing arts that will converge with Europeana"

(Dario Fo & Franca Rame)

ECLAP, the European Collected Library of Artistic Performance, is the new online archive for all performing arts in Europe, co-funded through the ICT Policy Support Programme of the European Commission. For the first time, the collections of the most important European performing arts institutions and archives are available online through the ECLAP Portal, as well as through Europeana, the European digital library. ECLAP also provides innovative and unique solutions and tools to help performing arts institutions manage and make their collections accessible.

Are you passionate in the performing arts sector or if you are an archivist, librarian, stakeholder, IT manager, artist, policy maker, manager, researcher, practitioner, or educator? This event is for you! You can find a detailed programme and some practical info here.

Participation to the event is free of charge but space is limited. Kindly register here before October the 18th.

The language of the event is Italian. If you have any further inquiries or require additional information about this event, please contact: info@eclap.eu
