

Europeana Space

Spaces of possibility for the creative re-use of Europeana's content

Tim Hammerton
Project Manager

Europeana New Projects Meeting
13 and 14 March 2014

Sarah Whatley, Project Coordinator

“I am sorry that I am not there with you, but I look forward to a productive co-operation with our colleagues in other projects and with the Europeana Foundation.”

- Coventry is the UK's 12 largest city
- The Times and Sunday Times Good University Guide
 - top 50 University, (45th place)
 - awarded the status of Modern University of the Year 2014
- The Guardian University Guide
 - top 35 University, (33rd place)
 - top 15 University for Art and Design, (14th place)
- £2.5 investment in research infrastructure

Cultural Heritage

- Working in partnership internationally to generate new forms of cultural content and develop tools to access content.
- Projects include:
 - Performing and Visual Arts
 - Media
 - Serious Games
 - Publishing
 - The Humanities

Cultural Heritage Projects

- Digitisation: The BT Archive
- Dance: Siobhan Davies Archive and Replay
- Augmented Reality: Shakespeare Birthplace Trust
- EU Culture/South Africa: MANDELA 27
- FP7 SSH: RICHES (Renewal, Innovation and Change: Heritage and European Society)