11th International Digital Curation Conference

The 11th International Digital Curation Conference (IDCC16), "Visible data, invisible infrastructure", will be held in Amsterdam at the Mövenpick Hotel Amsterdam City Centre. There will be a programme of workshops on Monday 22 February and Thursday 25 February and the main conference will run from Tuesday 23 to Wednesday 24 February 2016.

Erwin Verbruggen from the Netherlands Institute for Sound and Vision, Dave Rice and Jérôme Martinez from MediaArea, Bert Lemmens from PACKED and Claudio Prandoni from Promoter Srl submitted a paper entitled "Open Source Preservation Tools for Audiovisual Collections: PREFORMA and the MediaConch project".

The International Digital Curation Conference (IDCC) is an established annual event with a unique place in the digital curation community, reaching out to individuals, organisations and institutions across all disciplines and domains involved in curating data and providing an opportunity to get together with like-minded data practitioners to discuss policy and practice.

The last edition of IDCC took place in London, 9-12 February 2015. If you were not able to attend you can now access all the presentations, videos and photos online, and much more!
