

AIPAI Photo Contest 2024: deadline extended to October 31

The deadline for submitting photographic projects for the 3rd edition of the AIPAI PHOTO CONTEST, the photography contest organized by the Italian Association for Industrial Archaeological Heritage ETS, has been extended to October 31. The contest is organized in collaboration with DICEA - Sapienza University of Rome, Do.co.mo.mo Italia, Ministry of Culture - General Secretariat - UNESCO Office, Appia Antica Archaeological Park, Appia Antica Regional Park, AEM Foundation (Milan), ISEC Foundation (Sesto San Giovanni), Maire Tecnimont Foundation (Rome), Musil Foundation (Brescia), RoMe Museum Exhibition, and Photography Network.

For the winners are up are three 1000 euros prizes, publication in the magazine "Patrimonio Industriale" and display in a traveling exhibition of the winning, mentioned and selected shots.

The contest, designed to raise awareness and promote industrial culture, memory of work and the architectural, technological and landscape heritage of industrial archaeology, is open to professional photographers, amateurs, students, temporary or permanent groups and associations, without limits of age and nationality who will be able to tell, document and represent the industrial heritage through a photographic project, to be presented by 00:00 on October 31, 2024.

Read more about the contest