Call for applications: youth, mental healt and culture

VOICES OF CULTURE
Structured Dialogue between the European Commission and the cultural sector

What role can the cultural and creative sectors play in improving the mental health of young people?

This is the topic of the new call for applications launched by Voices of Culture], the ?platform for dialogue between the cultural sector in the European Union and the European Commission?.

Through this call, Voices of Culture intends to generate project ideas and policy recommendations for the cultural and creative sectors and decision makers.

The purpose of the call is to engage with experts on the topic of understanding the potential contribution of the cultural and creative sectors to the mental health of young people.

This topic is taking place in the context of the European Year of Youth 2022.

Selected applicants will be invited to a brainstorming meeting to take place in October 2022 in Brussels as well as to a dialogue meeting at the Goethe-Institut in Brussels in December to share their input.

All the information necessary to participate in the call is available on the dedicated page:
