Call for papers is still open for next SAI - Computing Conference 2019

Computing Conference (formerly called Science and Information (SAI) Conference) is a research conference held in London, UK since 2013. The conference series has featured keynote talks, special sessions, poster presentation, tutorials, workshops, and contributed papers each year.
Despite the short history of computer science as a formal academic discipline, it has made a number of fundamental contributions to science and society?in fact, along with electronics, it is a founding science of the current epoch of human history called the Information Age and a driver of the Information Revolution
The goal of the conference is to be a premier venue for researchers and industry practitioners to share new ideas, research results and development experiences in various fields. It is one of the best respected conferences in the area of computer science.

- Talks by industry experts on the state-of-the-art in computer science
- Lectures by eminent scientists designed to inspire and inform
- Presentations by innovative researchers coming from 50+ countries
- Discussion-oriented sessions and networking breaks to enable collaborations
