Culture. Future. Goal.

The fifth UCLG Culture Summit will be held in Dublin (Republic of Ireland) from 28 November to 1 December 2023.

Nancy Duxbury, Senior Researcher and Co-coordinator of the interdisciplinary thematic line Urban Cultures, Sociabilities, and Participation at the Centre for Social Studies of the University of Coimbra, partner of UNCHARTED, will be participating as a keynote speaker at the UCLG Summit, talking about the UNCHARTED project in the session "Measuring the impacts of cultural policies".

The Summit is conceived as a Co-creation Exercise to envision the future, to hear voices from the all corners of the world, to show the power of local voices.

The four axis of the Summit are:
? Capacity Building
? Showcasing city experiences
? Content co-creation
? Linking culture with the UCLG Pact for the Future

The booklet with the programme of the Summit is available here for download.

For further information, please go to the website that announces the Summit at www.uclg-cul turesummit2023.org]