CUTE 2015, MASTERCLASS SERIES ON CULTURE AND TECHNOLOGY

CUTE is a yearly mas-ter-class series on cul-ture and tech-nol-ogy, orga-nized by the Nume-di-art research insti-tute, and brings together a panel of world-renowned experts in var-i-ous high-tech fields and get them to meet all kinds of audi-ences (research, arts, indus-try) in a series of ?hands on work-shops".

Keynote speakers this year are:

Prof. Petri Toiviainen, University of Jyväskylä, Finland

MasterClass: Introduction to the MoCap Toolbox

Dr. Anthony Brooks, School of Media Technology University of Aalborg, Esbjerg

MasterClass: Control from Non-Control: Digital Media Plasticity ? Human Performance Plasticity

Prof. Rebecca Fiebrink, Goldsmiths University of London

MasterClass: Machine learning as a tool for designing embodied interactions

M. James Morley, Creative Industries Community Developer, Europeana

MasterClass: Creative re-use of digital cultural heritage ? opportunities, challenges, approaches, impact

Get more details on the speakers, on the agenda, and freely register to this event.

All keynotes will take place in the Academic Room, 31, Boulevard Dolez, 7000 MONS.