

European Cultural Heritage Summit

The European Cultural Heritage Summit 2022 is part of the official programme of the Czech Presidency of the Council of the European Union and it will take place from 25 to 27 September in Prague.

It is organised by Europa Nostra – the European Voice of Civil Society Committed to Cultural Heritage – and Europa Nostra Czech Republic, in cooperation with the European Commission and the Czech Ministry of Culture.

The programme includes:

Presentations by the Winners of the 2022 European Heritage Awards / Europa Nostra Awards

Cultural Visits: Wallenstein Palace (Seat of Czech Senate), Palace Gardens Below Prague Castle, National Museum, Old Wastewater Treatment plant in Prague-Bubene?

European Heritage Awards Ceremony 2022

European Heritage Policy Agora: organized in cooperation with the European Commission and the Ministry of Culture of the Czech Republic in the frame of the Czech Presidency of the Council of the European Union and the European Pavilion programme of the European Cultural Foundation (tbc) as a contribution to the European Year of Youth 2022 & the New European Bauhaus.

On the occasion of the Summit in Prague, 'The Future is Heritage' initiative, coordinated by Dutch heritage organizations, in collaboration and with the support of Europa Nostra and ESACH - Association of European Students for Cultural Heritage, organizes a four-day capacity building event for young heritage students and professionals. It will take place from 24 to 27 September.

Where to find more information:

updated programme

event registration

summit web page