European Culture Forum 2017 - registrations open

The European Culture Forum is a biennial flagship event organised by the European Commission to raise the profile of European cultural cooperation, to bring together cultural sectors' key players and to debate on EU culture policy and initiatives. Its 2017 edition will also mark the official launch of the European Year of Cultural Heritage 2018, the thematic EU year devoted to our common cultural assets and all their aspects.

The event, for the first time outside of Brussels, will take place at Superstudio in the booming creative neighbourhood of Tortona in Milan. This extraordinary event venue, once a bicycle factory and then a place for fashion publishing and art created by a renowned Italian art director Flavio Lucchini in the 1980s, will provide an inspiring and thought-provoking decorum for lively discussions, unexpected meetings and fruitful exchanges.

Can culture help to tackle European and global challenges? Does cultural heritage matter to Europeans? How can culture in cities and regions help to shape more cohesive and inclusive societies? Come to Milan to discuss, listen, think and get inspired.

More info, registration: https://ec.europa.eu/culture/event/forum-2017_en

A Game Jam is also organized in conjunction with the Forum. The Game Jam, organised in cooperation with the Video Game Museum of Rome, welcomes developers and students of every competence and skill level: we are looking for passion and new ideas. For those interested in participating, please send an email to direzione@vigamus.com with your details and area of expertise.