Fiaticorti, the international short film festival

Applications are now open for the 20th edition of Fiaticorti, the international short film festival based in Istana, one of the most important short film festival in Italy. You have until 31th August 2019 to sign up.

Three sections are available:

- Fiaticorti: a section devoted to national and international short films.
- Fiaticomici: a section devoted to humorous and satirical short films.
- FiatiVeneti: a special section devoted to short films which have been shot by directors from Veneto or short films generally concerning Veneto.

You can freely choose the topic of your short film, regardless of the section it belongs to. We will accept only short films lasting up to 20 minutes and shot since 1st January 2018. We will also accept works which have already been presented in other festivals.

Fiaticorti Jury will choose 4 winners:

- Fiaticorti award

- Fiaticomici award
- FiatiVeneti award
- Fiaticorti best actor

You can find further information on www.fiaticorti.it