Evaluation files

Files used for testing by the PREFORMA Consortium during the evaluation phase. These files must be different from those that have been used as training files during the prototyping phase, but they need to belong to the same category (i.e. they cannot introduce new failures, challenges and issues that were not included in the training set).