

Examination files

Files used for testing by the PREFORMA members/network during the prototyping phase. The tests can be done locally, ?in-house?, or within any other environment. The files can be provided later either for training or for evaluation.