

Report Template

A template file that defines the layout and format of a Human-readable or Machine-readable report. These are used by the Reporter to transform Machine-readable Reports into alternative formats.