

INCULTUM International Conference: everything is ready

Everything is ready for the final conference of the INCULTUM project.

The international event will take place in Guadix on 12 April 2024 with a program of very interesting speeches from the project's partners and invited scholars and researchers.

The full programme is available online, on the project's website.

The event will host also gallery of posters that are accessible also in digital format.