INCULTUM participated in the interpretative route through the Acequia de la Alpanchía

Last November 4 2023, the Spanish pilot of the INCULTUM project participated in the interpretative route through the Acequia de la Alpanchía, in Galera, municipality of the Altiplano de Granada.

The Spanish pilot of INCULTUM is led by University of Granada, coordinator of the INCULTUM project.

The activity was organized by the Vegas del Conocimiento project, the Alpanchía Association and the City Council of Galera, with whom the University of Granada is collaborating from INCULTUM.

Forty people participated in the tour, in which they could appreciate all the values of the irrigation ditches and meadows, accompanied by the main experts of all these aspects: the irrigators.
