

INCULTUM pilot in Al-Andalus, training on water

Training on water in Al-Andalus

Last Monday, January 29th, MEMOLab gave a training on water in Al-Andalus at the Rafael Vidal school in Fonelas, a municipality in the Altiplano of Granada.

The conference is part of the INCULTUM pilot about Desert landscapes and oasis in the Altiplano de Granada.

The event was the occasion to discuss the importance of historical irrigation systems and the possibility of their application in education and tourism.

