

INCULTUM presented at Be.CULTOUR webinar

The screenshot shows a presentation slide for INCULTUM. The title 'INCULTUM' is at the top left. Below it, the text 'PARTICIPATION ENABLES DEVELOPMENT AND GROWTH' is displayed. A bulleted list follows: 'Local communities are engaged in valuing their territories and cultural/natural heritage', 'Stakeholders are involved in the co-creative management of tourism potential, developing shared marketing channels, digital tools, communication and interactivity', and 'Policy makers establish regulations to support the promotion of the territories in collaboration with local stakeholders and communities.' The slide includes three images: a group of people looking at a map, a person speaking at a podium, and two people hiking in a forest. Logos for 'PROMOTER' and 'DIGITAL CULTURE' are at the bottom.

The Be.CULTOUR project, focused on enhancing cultural heritage and landscape values for sustainable cultural tourism, is unfolding a series of webinars to boost peer learning among its Community of Interest and other followers. Given that Be.CULTOUR and INCULTUM established a cooperation agreement for cross-dissemination and knowledge exchange, the webinar series is promoted also via the INCULTUM channels and and in the INCULTUM network.

Webinar 5: Community-led and innovative entrepreneurship for circular cultural tourism - 23 June 2023

Various experts and on-field stakeholders are invited to present and discuss their innovative ideas, their progress and their challenges concerning cultural tourism and beyond. In this webinar, INCULTUM cases will be presented by the Network and Dissemination manager Antonella Fresca.
