

INCULTUM to be presented at the new Workshop on water heritage at the University of Algarve

WORKSHOP

Water Path: Heritage-based solutions and community-based cultural tourism

A new workshop called "Water Path: Heritage-based solutions and community-based cultural tourism" is promoted by the University of Algarve, IN LOCO Association and INCULTUM and financed by the European Union will take place at the University of Algarve on Friday 14th April 2023.

The workshop will revolve around discussions and Round Tables on cultural and hydrological heritage, cultural tourism, and more, where INCULTUM project will be presented during the opening of the event.

The workshop is aimed at local producers, small tourism agents and guides, university and high school students and scholars, and anyone that has an interest on the topics.

Participation is free, but signing up is mandatory.

For more info, email at incultum@in-loco.pt

WORKSHOP

Water Path: Heritage-based solutions and community-based cultural tourism

APRIL PROGRAMME:

14

- 09:00 | Welcome to the participants
- 09:15 | Opening and presentation of the INCULTUM project
 - Desidério Batista, University of Algarve/FCT
 - Artur Gregório, In Loco Association
- 09:30 | Round table "Landscape, Heritage, Culture and Tourism in perspective"
 - Moderation: Artur Gregório, In Loco Association
 - Adriana Freire Nogueira, Algarve Regional Directorate for Culture (to be confirmed)
 - Marco António Lopes, Faro Municipal Museum
 - Luís Segura, Algarve Tourism Region
- 10:00 | Debate
- 10:15 | Round Table "Valuing Cultural and Hydrological Heritage: good practices of tourism agents in the Algarve"
 - Moderation: Ana Arsenário, In Loco Association
 - Catarina Oliveira, Caceia Heritage Research and Information Centre/CMVRSA
 - Catarina Ramos - Faro Story Spot
- 10:45 | Debate
- 11:00 | Coffee-break
- 11:10 | Workshop "Changing landscapes: how to interpret the landscape we apprehend and build a Cultural Tourism Itinerary and product?"
 - Part 1 - Step by step to build itineraries based on landscape interpretation
 - Part 2 - Experiencing landscape interpretation: practical exercise in the Faro riverside park (includes picnic break for lunch)
- 15:00 | Sharing results and discussion
- 16:00 | Event closure

CLASSROOM 2.35
(FCHS - BUILDING 1)
UNIVERSITY OF ALGARVE
GAMBELAS, FARO

AIMED AT: Local producers, guides and other small tourism agents, university and high school students, other local development agents, other citizens with an interest in the topic

SIGN UP THROUGH:
HTTPS://LINKTR.EE/INCULTUM

BRING ALONG: A lunch snack (inspired by the Mediterranean Diet), water, comfortable clothes and shoes

+INFO
E-mail: incultum@in-loco.pt
Tel.: +351 289 840 860

Promoted by:

Financing: