Online Creative Residency 2025 - Information Session by Europeana

The Online Creative Residency, as part of the Digital Storytelling Festival ran by Europeana, brings students and new professionals who want to gain storytelling skills in a professional setting together with experts. Working with these experts, residency participants develop stories with cultural heritage in different digital formats.

During the webinar last year's Creative Online Residency will be showcased, and the application process for this year will be launched.

Get your tickets at this link.