

PREFORMA at SUCCEED interoperability workshop

Bert Lemmens from PACKED represented PREFORMA at the Interoperability Workshop organised by the SUCCEED project to discuss best practices and possibilities for cooperation on a technical level between European Centres of Competence and Digital infrastructures.

The aim of the workshop was to discuss best practices and possibilities for alignment and cooperation on a technical level between European Centres of Competence and Digital infrastructures.

Each of the invited attendees presented their experience with interoperability.

Download here the PREFORMA presentation.