SECreTOUR final conference

The final conference of the SECreTOUR project is taking place in Granada on 19-20 November 2026.

The first day on 19/11 starts in the morning with the welcome messages delivered by the representatives of the Coordinator University of Granada, followed by two sessions:

- General Context of Rural Tourism and Local Economic Sector
- What is "Fair, Creative and Sustainable Tourism"

The afternoon of 19/11 is dedicated to the Cultural Tourism Cluster, where the projects funded in the same Horizon Europe call "Fostering socio-economic development and job creation in rural and remote areas through cultural tourism" (HORIZON-CL2-2023-HERITAGE-01-05) will present their main achievements, highlighting their complementarity in terms of research and innovation outcomes.

The second day on 20/11 includes two sessions in the morning:

- Fair, Creative and Sustainable Tourism / Good Practices & Cases
- Tourism Policies, Institutional Perspectives & Territorial Heritage Communities

The afternoon of 20/11 is dedicated to Tourism Policies, Institutional Perspectives & Territorial Heritage Communities, with intervention of European and international organisations.

The event is open to all the interested organisations and projects and it will be possible to follow the presentations online.

The registration to the conference will open soon.

Stay tuned!

Follow SECreTour online also on the SECreTour project's website.