"Research Perspectives on the Societal Value of Culture"
Speaker:
Arturo Rodríguez Morató, Visiting Scholar, Weatherhead Scholars Program. Professor, Department of Sociology, Universitat de Barcelona.

On May 14 2021, Professor Arturo Rodríguez Morató, UNCHARTED project's Coordinator, gave a lecture on the topic "Research Perspectives on the Societal Value of Culture" at the Cultural Politics Seminar of the Weatherhead Center for International Affairs, Harvard University. The center, active since 1958, it is dedicated to confronting complex international, transnational, global, and comparative issues.

The UNCHARTED project was presented in that context. Within the WCFIA, the seminar on Cultural Politics offered a Interdisciplinary Perspectives and functioned as a forum for lectures and intellectual exchanges on cultural politics across disciplines and national or historical boundaries. The seminar was chaired by Panagiotis Roilos, professor of comparative literature and of Greek studies at Harvard University.
