

The UNCHARTED study on the Case of Volterra22

The UNCHARTED case study on Volterra22 will be presented in Volterra at Palazzo dei Priori on 30 October 2023 at 6 pm in the Sala del Maggior Consiglio, the historical City Hall.

Volterra is the city selected as the main case study of the Axis 1 on Strategic Cultural Planning of the UNCHARTED project, as part of the Work Package 5 about experiential demonstrations.

After the field work conducted by Promoter, the UNCHARTED partner responsible of the study, with interviews and a public online questionnaire, the results of the research have been reported in a book that will be presented to citizens and stakeholders at the public event on the 30th of October. For the occasion the book will be distributed to all the participants.

The Mayor, the Councillor for Cultures and representatives of the UNCHARTED consortium will be present.

More more information are available on the project's web page dedicated to the event.

The book with the full study about the Case of Volterra22 is available also online and downloadable from the UNCHARTED website in Italian and English versions.
