

The video of the RICHES First International Conference is online!

The RICHES International Conference held in Pisa (4-5 December 2014) concluded successfully the first year of activities of the project. Inspiring presentations delighted the audience with interesting reflections and best practice examples around the conference topic 'Cultural Heritage: Recalibrating relationships'.

Speakers from within the project itself but also drawn from across the world shared their experiences with over 150 participants that attended the event.

Check the best moments and the interviews to the event speakers at the conference video!
