UNCHARTED at WEAVE final conference

WEAVE ? Widen European Access to cultural communities Via Europeana] is a 2-years project funded by the CEF Programme of the EU.

Member of the UNCHARTED community since 2021, it supports Europeana about widen European access to intangible cultural heritage and the heritage of minority cultural communities.

Last 16 September its final conference ?Weaving digital culture: tangible and intangible heritage, cultural communities and the digital transformation? took place in Girona to explore the connections between tangible and intangible heritage, cultural communities and the process of digital transformation of cultural heritage organisations.

], director at Promoter and technical coordinator of UNCHARTED, attended the event as speaker with the presentation ?Cultural values, identities, participation and local communities? during which she presented the UNCHARTED project.

Conference details, full video of the event and presentations are available at https://weave-culture.eu/conference/

https://uncharted-culture.eu/
Focusing on the valuation practices developed by different actors involved in the cultural sector, the EU-funded UNCHARTED project is working to identify Europe's plurality of cultural values attached to specific cultural products, productions, services, activities and sites.
It considers the diversity of practices and the multiplicity of agents involved in cultural life, from audiences and visitors to artists, producers and politicians.
la Mercè