

27 October, World Day for Audiovisual Heritage

The Girona City Council, through the Centre for Image Research and Diffusion (CRDI, abbreviated in Catalan) and with the collaboration of the Cinema Museum, celebrate once more the World Day for Audiovisual Heritage with several activities:

The virtual exhibition "Girona – Gävle. On the shores of two seas. From the Mediterranean to the Gulf of Bothnia. 1880 - 1914. " The aim of that exhibition is to show the different European cultural identities through the analysis of photographs from both cities in this period.

Cases Studies. A new resource that has been developed and coordinated by the Photographic and Audiovisual Archives Group (PAAG) of the International Council on Archives (ICA). This is a project based on cases studies in which specific archival interventions realized on photographic and audiovisual collections are analysed. The aim is to create a methodology based on real experience. The resource is aimed mainly at the international archival community.
